YOUNG MAN RE-ARRESTED

Boy Who Robbed Windsor Bar
To Answer Other Charges.

Is Now in Jail at Indianapolis—
Stole two Overcoats and Gave Worthless Check.

The young man who robbed the cash register at the bar in the Windsor Hotel, is now in jail at Indianapolis, where he was again arrested after he fled from this city. The boy's name is Harry Goddard, and he hails from Connersville. Heretofore Goddard, who comes of good parentage, has borne a good reputation, but it seems that of late he has shown some very crooked tendencies.

Recently he purchased a watch and chain, price $17.50, at a jewelry store in Connersville. He gave in payment a check for the amount on the F. M. Trust company. The check proved worthless as Goddard had no funds at the Trust's bank. The jeweler laid the matter before Goddard's father, who made a partial cash payment and promised to pay the whole amount.

A few days ago he went to the Kahn clothing store in Connersville, and said he wanted to buy an overcoat. After looking at several coats he said he would like to take two of them home that his parents might assist in making a selection. The request was complied with. That was the last that was heard or seen of him. When he came to this city he had the two overcoats with him. One of them he left at the Windsor hotel in his hasty flight. The coat was given to the boy's father and he returned it to the clothing store. Goddard had the other on when he was arrested at Indianapolis.

The young man's parents, who are worthy and respected, have tried to lead him from his wayward path. He is small of stature and rather bright. He formerly held a position with the Connersville bus line.

DESTROYED BY FIRE

Farm Residence of Mrs. Mary
Haywood Near Henderson
Burns to the Ground.

The farm residence of Mrs. Mary E. Haywood, situated about a half mile west of Henderson, caught fire from a defective flue at eight o'clock this morning and burned to the ground. Mrs. Haywood was visiting her brother, Albert Moore, at Arlington at the time and there was no one at home except Mr. and Mrs. Elza Haywood, who live with her. They, with the help of the neighbors, succeeded in saving a portion of the household effects. The total loss is estimated at $1200 with $800 insurance.

THE STANDARD

Of a Perfect Ear of Corn—Measurements Adopted by Corn Growers' Association.

Those who do not know what a perfect ear of corn is can judge from the standard set by the Indiana Corn Growers' Association. The Indiana Corn Growers' Association has formulated the following as the "standard perfect ear of corn": "A perfect ear of corn should be 10½ inches in length, 7½ inches in circumference; should yield 90 per cent. grain, cylindrical in form and should carry its size the entire length except near the point, where it should taper slightly, well filled out at both ends."

"SOME FACTS."

The following letter was has been received at this office from Charles Landis, of Chicago, who wishes to give "some facts" concerning the flight of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Reynolds.

The Republican Co., Rushville, Ind.
Dear Editor:—In looking over your paper of Jan. 6th, I notice an article headed "Stole Away," and knowing your desire to always get the straight of the story, I beg the use of the columns of your valued paper to give a correct version of the same.

When in Rushville to attend the wedding of my niece, Miss Edith Carr, I was told by Mr. Reynolds that he had been informed that his numerous young friends intended to make things exceedingly lively for him in the manner of free donations of rice, beans, old shoes, etc., and that while he was always desirous and willing to contribute his share toward their enjoyment, he had made up his mind that owing to the fact that they had circulated very widely the report and even offered to make bets on it, when he had jokingly told them that he might give them the go-by, that he would out-wit them.

He asked if I could suggest some plan whereby they could give them the slip and leave town without their being the wiser. I suggested to Mr. Reynolds that a good general always liked to look over the ground and see what kind of an enemy he had to defeat, and asked him to take me around and point out to me who would be the ring leader in providing the special entertainment for him. I found that in the list were two would-be bright attorneys and two medical students, but after seeing them I instantly decided that with that bunch and others assisting them, that absolutely no plan would be required, simply start the story that they intended to go West when they left, then go in an opposite direction and when ready to go to their train have Mr. Reynolds walk out of the front door in plain view of the entire party, and his wife out of the other door and meet at the carriage which they did and drove away in full view of everybody in the house, and our extremely simple plan actually put them all to sleep, and not one of the very talented schemers of the intended free entertainment so much as missed them until they had been gone for at least half an hour and were well on their way to Richmond, where they took the train the following day for Chicago. Then there was considerable skirmishing around, each blaming the other for the complete failure of their plans.

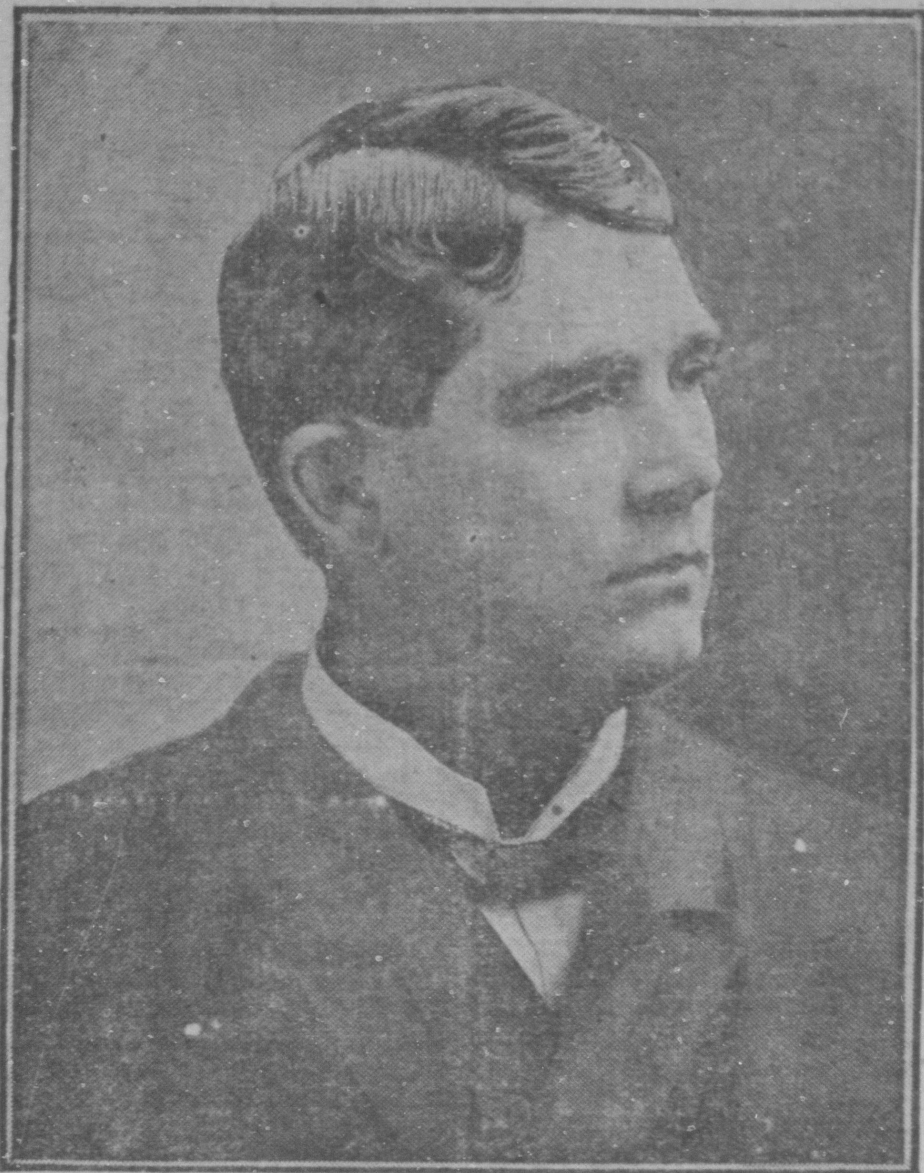

It was reported to me that Messrs. Trabue and Retherford were seen actually crying and begging their mutual friend, Dolph Humes, to kick them around the block as they were willing to admit that they were dead ones. They made such a pitiful howl about the way they had been out-generaled, saying that none in Rushville would ever again have any confidence in their ability to do things, that Mr. Carr, the bride's father, suggested that we get the groom's trunk, place it in a room and allow a few of the defeated plotters in the room where they could see the same and accidentally suggest in their hearing that it would be a good joke on the groom to steal his trunk knowing that they would have considerable fun in putting their rice, beans, vegetables, etc., into same.

That being decided upon, Mr. Carr and I placed the trunk in the back room, left the doors unlocked so as to make it easy for the burglars, and to give them more confidence I then left the house, leaving Mr. Carr to watch operations from the sitting room window. Our plan worked to a nicety as within twenty minutes Mr. Carr called me to the 'phone and reported that they had the trunk just as we had planned.

I had not intended to let the plotters' friends know that we had beaten them a second time until I noticed their little article in your columns. Trusting the above will clear up the mystery as to why their plans miscarried, and suggesting that cutting cord wood is a good occupation for "farmers" who have professional aspirations, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
CHARLES LANDIS.

HON. J. FRANK HANLY.

Who was today inaugurated as Governor of Indiana.

NEW GOVERNOR

J. Frank Hanly Formally Inducted Into High Office Today.

Indianapolis, Jan. 9.—Inauguration day, one of the big events in the calendar of official events in Indiana, was celebrated with due regard at the state capital today, J. Frank Hanly of Lafayette becoming governor, and Hugh T. Miller of Columbus lieutenant governor.

An atmosphere of greater simplicity than ever before characterized the event. This was the expressed wish of Mr. Hanly and Mr. Miller, neither of whom are given to pomp or display. The lack of display, however, was made up by the quiet interest taken in every feature and the rounds of applause that greeted the new officials.

The lower corridor of the statehouse was given over to the inauguration ceremonies. The massive columns and marble balcony railings were concealed beneath skillfully arranged bunting in national colors. Various colored incandescent globes shed a soft and mellow glow over the scene, giving a mantle pleasing to the eye.

The ceremonies attending the inauguration of Mr. Hanly were conducted from a platform beneath the rotunda. Seats were provided for the state officials and members of the legislature. Hundreds of interested spectators were packed behind the reserved space.

Prior to the inauguration proper the two branches of the legislature went through a time-honored routine provided by the state constitution. The two branches met in joint session. Lieutenant Governor Gilbert presiding. Speaker Cantwell read the certificates showing the result of the election by counties. The election of Mr. Hanly and Mr. Miller was then officially announced by Mr. Gilbert, after which Mr. Miller took the oath of office, Mr. Gilbert retiring. Mr. Miller was received with much enthusiasm. He made a brief speech setting forth his policy and expressing his appreciation of the confidence reposed in him by the people.

The inaugural procession was then formed. Governor-elect Hanly and Governor Durbin leading, followed by Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Miller, members of the supreme and appellate courts, state officials and legislators. The inaugural ceremonies were opened by a selection by the Indianapolis Military band. Prayer was then offered by the Rev. W. D. Cole of Lafayette, after which there was a brief speech by the retiring governor.

Judge J. V. Hadley, chief justice of the supreme court, administered the oath of office to Mr. Hanly, whose appearance was the signal for much applause. Mr. Hanly then delivered his inaugural address, lasting over an hour. It was regarded as one of the best speeches he has made during his public career.

The ceremonies ended about 2 o'clock. Mr. Hanly and Mr. Miller were warmly congratulated. There will be a public reception in the governor's parlors at the statehouse to night, at which Mr. and Mrs. Hanly will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Durbin.

MISS RUBY NORRIS.

Honors of Delightful Greeting at Home of Miss Gretchen Lewis in Connersville.

(Connersville News.)

Miss Gretchen Lewis was a charming hostess for a few friends, last evening, at her home on West Eleventh street, in honor of her guest, Miss Ruby Norris, a pretty young lady, of Rushville.

The company amused themselves very delightfully for a part of the time with a guessing contest, which taxed the skill, but withal was most interesting. Mr. Herbert Ready was most fortunate at the climax, and was awarded the prize, a dainty box of bon bons.

The young hostess served a dainty collation, which was heartily enjoyed by all.

Those present were Misses Gladys and Inez Lockhart, Hazel Sisco, Bessie Williams, Pearl Marlatt, Miss Norris and Messrs. Herman Depner, Herbert Ready, Forest Bosler, Fritz Conwell, Wayne Beeson and Gaylord Savage.

ECLIPSE OF SUN.

The year 1905 will witness a total eclipse of the sun on the morning of August 30th. It will only be partially visible in Indiana as it is total in the longitude of Buffalo, New York, Harrisburg, Pa. just at sunrise. By the time the sun rises here the eclipse will be almost half gone. If the morning is clear, residents of Indiana will see the sun rise in the shape of a half-moon, growing larger until the eclipse disappears about an hour after sunrise.

ODD FELLOWS LEGISLATION.

A new law in Odd Fellowship went into effect on January 1, that is being much discussed by members.

Heretofore the law has been that a member of one lodge leaving on card, could, if elected, become a member of any other lodge by paying a certain fee. Lodges could fix this fee, but a minimum of $2 was the law.

The law now in effect is that no fee shall be charged for the deposit of a card, and as there is no law compelling lodge to accept a member on card it is feared the new law will work disastrously, especially where a member removes from one district or town to another.

There is a little bit of safety in a provision that enables a man to make application to join a second lodge before he applies for a card from the first. If rejected by the second he is still a member of the first; if elected, he can then withdraw from the first.

BURNED THE NOTES

Congregation of Christian Church Lifts Its Debt and Holds Jubilee Service.

Rev. J. H. MacNeil Pastor of Central Christian Church at Kokomo Occupied Pulpit.

During the morning services at the Main Street Christian church Sunday it was announced that the entire indebtedness against the church had been paid and that a note burning and jollification service would be held. Rev. J. H. MacNeil, pastor of the Central Christian church at Kokomo, who was pastor of the congregation in this city at the time of the erection of the magnificent new edifice, eleven years ago, occupied the pulpit and preached an able and appropriate sermon on "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens." All the claims and notes against the church having been paid, they were burned on a platter before the eyes of the vast congregation assembled.

A thank offering was taken up which amounted to $220 and to which Mrs. Claude Cambren and Mrs. M. C. Burt contributed large amounts. Rev. MacNeil also occupied the pulpit in the evening and was greeted by a large congregation.

The Main Street-Christian church originally cost $42,000. Since that time the congregation has been steadily reducing the indebtedness until only $2,700 of the original sum remained. This together with the cost of repairs, insurance and accumulated interest made a total of $3200 against the church. The officers concluded that by strenuous efforts this amount could be raised. Ten solicitors were sent out and in two week's time the desired amount had been gathered together. Sums ranging from $25 to $100 were subscribed. John H. Power contributed $750 out of the $3200.

The congregation is now entirely free from debt and has in return one of the handsomest and most substantial church buildings in this part of the State. The officers of the church have labored faithfully to raise the debt and deserve the thanks of the entire congregation for their efforts.

BILL OPPOSED.

Congressman Watson's Measure Meeting Opposition in West Virginia.

West Virginians are raising a row because the bill introduced by Congressman Watson on Dec. 13th, providing for the compulsory retirement of Federal judges when they reach the 80 years of age, will have the effect, if enacted, to oust Judge John J. Jackson, of the Northern District of West Virginia, the oldest Federal judge in the United States. He was appointed by Lincoln.

A RUNAWAY.

The horse, drawing Z. E. Mauzy's delivery wagon, became cold and restless this morning while making a delivery at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Downey on North Sexton street and ran away. The horse ran east on Seventh, and south on Main street, and was checked in front of Riley & Kelley's grocery. During its mad run the animal passed several buggies and narrowly averted several collisions. The horse ran onto the sidewalk in front of Mauzy's bakery and came near falling. No damage was done to horse, wagon or harness.

An eleven-years-old boy in New York city, who has fallen heir to $13,000,000, has not been told of it for fear it might worry him. Do you suppose any one is hiding out on you like that?

CLEARING THE WAY.

For Extension of the I. and C.
Traction Line to Connersville.

A gentleman who returned from Indianapolis, says that in many places between Glenwood and Rushville trees are being felled and fences changed preparatory to grading for the electric line, and many small groups of men were at work. Beyond Rushville, linemen are busy. Two lines of trolley are being stretched, one above the other. The upper is copper and the lower apparently bright steel. It will be remembered that Mr. Henry said some time ago that the line would have an improved method of power and the double wire is designed for this purpose.—Connersville News.

THE LECTURE

Rev. T. H. McConnell Gives the
First of His Series on Round
About Jerusalem.

At the First Presbyterian church last night Rev. T. H. McConnell delivered the first of his series of lectures on his trip to the Holy Land. A large audience assembled to hear him; the auditorium and Sunday school room both being well filled.

Rev. McConnell told the story of his trip after leaving New York City until the party reached Jerusalem in a very simple and interesting manner. The audience greatly appreciated the lecture and the splendid stereopticon views with which it was illustrated.

Among the best of these were two fine views of Gibraltar, various views of the wall and different gates of Jerusalem, a splendid view of the place which is now granted by many of the ablest scholars to be the Place of the Skull, and a very fine view in colors of the crucifixion of Christ. The lectures will be given each Sunday evening during January, and are absolutely free to all who wish to attend.

FOUND DEAD.

The dead body of Charles Riser, aged fifty years, of Waldron, was found on Saturday night about two miles from Shelbyville and near the Big Four tracks. A large cut on his head and a broken leg would seem to indicate that he had been struck by a train, and as he was rather deaf, it is supposed that while walking on the track he met the injuries that caused his death. Mr. Riser was a German and quite well-to-do, owning among other property, all of the saloons in Waldron.

WHAT THE ### PEOPLE SAY

"A beautiful young society girl in Connersville, who is greatly interested in church work, and who, until recently taught a Sunday school class, tells this story on herself. The little girls, which composed her class, were very anxious to sit beside her each Sunday, and sometimes it was all she could do to settle matters amicably. At last she maintained peace by giving the members of the class numbers, entitling them to the privilege coveted. One girl became confidential one day, and told why it was they all loved their teacher so dearly. The lady was horror stricken when the little voice piped, 'Because you always smell so nice, we just love to get close to you.'"

HOLDS UNIQUE POSITION

W. T. Durbin the Only Living Ex-Governor of Indiana.

Indianapolis, Jan. 9.—W. T. Durbin, now former Governor Durbin, will probably spend a few weeks here before he makes any definite plans for the future. While he is now a member of the great army of ex-officials, he enjoys the distinction of being the only living ex-governor of Indiana. It is supposed that after he takes a much-needed rest he will return to Anderson, where he has a beautiful home and large manufacturing interests. Mr. Durbin was probably the wealthiest man to hold the governor's office in the last twenty-five years. It was reported some time ago that he and Mrs. Durbin might go to Florida to spend the winter, after which they would go abroad for an indefinite period, but it is not known what their plans are.

Since Governor Durbin called the attention of the legislature in forcible terms to the presence of a powerful lobby which proposes to corrupt the members if necessary to carry out its plans, the agents of the corporations who are now here are looked on with considerable suspicion, although there is no direct evidence that there is a more pernicious lobby than usual. The railroad attorneys and agents for the interurbans have been distributing passes with a liberal hand, but that is a usual procedure. It is not known what ground the governor had for charging that there will be an unusual lobby. His charges have unquestionably called the public attention to the matter. The members, it is understood, have been warned by their constituents to fight very shy of the lobby. It would not be surprising if the railroads should have a powerful lobby as bills for the elevation of tracks here and for the creation of a railway commission will be introduced.

The Republicans and Democrats will caucus Wednesday night to select their candidates for the United States senate. This will be a perfunctory proceeding, inasmuch as Senator Beveridge and Congressman James A. Hemenway have no opposition among the Republicans and there is not much strife over the empty honor the Democrats have to give. The program for the election of the Republican candidates is now being arranged. In the house Representative Gough of Warwick county will make the principal speech nominating Mr. Hemenway. Senator E. E. Hendee of Anderson will present Mr. Hemenway's name in the senate. In the house Senator Beveridge's name will probably be presented by William Bosson of this city, while Senator Charles Roemer of this city will perform a like service in the senate. There will be four or five seconding speeches on each side.

The legislature has already brought out a number of Republican candidates for state office. Jonce Monahan of Orleans, who was here for the opening of the session, is a candidate for state treasurer. John Dyer of Hammond, Jacob Joel of Crawfordsville and T. B. Milligan of New Castle are candidates for the same place. Deputy Secretary of State Frank I. Grubbs is regarded as a prospective candidate for secretary of state. Treasurer Nat U. Hill and Attorney General Miller may become candidates for governor, and John Billheimer, deputy auditor, is a prospective candidate for auditor. Before the session ends probably half a dozen members will have their ambition fired so they will enter some race.

The passing of the Durbin administration and the inauguration of Mr. Hanly as governor has revived talk that a requisition will soon be presented for former Governor W. S. Taylor and former Secretary of State Charles Finley of Kentucky. These two men are still fugitives in Indiana. While it is not definitely known what Mr. Hanly's position will be, it would not be surprising if he should follow the precedent established by the last two governors. Taylor and Finley, who were formerly such conspicuous figures, seem to have almost completely disappeared from before the public eye.

It Disappointed Them.

Lima, Peru, Jan. 9.—There is much disappointment at the announcement that the vessels of the American Pacific squadron, Rear Admiral C. A. Goodrich commanding, will remain only three days at Callao. The authorities of Peru and foreign and native society people are very desirous of entertaining the officers of the squadron in a suitable manner and had hoped their ships would remain at least eight days at Callao.

Jury Unable to Agree.

Winchester, Ky., Jan. 9.—After deliberating several hours the jurors in the Hargis-Marcum case came into court and reported that they were unable to agree. Judge Benton refused to discharge the jury. If the present trial ends in a failure to agree he will try the case again at a special term during his summer vacation, probably in July, as it consumes more time than is allotted to a regular term.

London, Jan. 9.—The arrival of Whitelaw Reid, who is to succeed Mr. Chaote as ambassador, is still uncertain, and nothing is known definitely about his plans. There is much to be done before he can settle himself in London, where he certainly will be as popular as he was in other official positions he has occupied abroad, for he has many friends here.

READY FOR PEACE

Japan Willing to Receive Russia's Overtures.

New York, Jan. 9.—The fall of Port Arthur was celebrated here Sunday at a mass meeting of Japanese residents of the city, held in Carnegie hall. The affair was intended to be solely for the Japanese residents, 500 of whom attended, and the only invited guests were General Stewart L. Woodford, former minister to Spain, and Alexander Tison, both of whom spoke. General Woodford's subject was: "The

M. SADAZUCHI UCHIDA, JAPANESE CONSUL GENERAL AT NEW YORK.

Greatness of the Japanese People," and at one point in his address the mention of Catherine of Russia caused an outburst of applause followed by cheers. General Woodford said that the American people loved the Japanese because they were as generous in victory as they were brave in battle; and when he followed with the statement that during the war of the Revolution Catherine of Russia came to the rescue of America with men and money, the entire audience burst into applause and ended the demonstration with cheers.

The meeting was presided over by Uchida, consul general of Japan.

"As you all know," said the Japanese consul general in opening the meeting, "our country was forced to this war by the aggressiveness of the Russians. We Japanese are a peace-loving nation and we would not have entered upon this war if we had not been forced into it. We are quite willing to make peace if Russia is willing. From the press reports that have come from St. Petersburg it seems to me the Russian government, instead of making peace, is determined to carry on the war. It is our turn to impose peace on the Russian government by keeping up the fighting as long as the Russians want to carry on the war. The fall of Port Arthur does not necessarily mean the end of the war, but we all hope, and earnestly, that it will bring Russia to meeting our terms of peace. We will be generous, not selfish, in such an hour."

Will Punish the Guilty.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Information has reached the state department that, complying with the insistent demands of the United States, the Persian government has made to the widow partial reparation by the payment to her of $30,000 indemnity for the murder of the Rev. Benjamin W. Labaree, an American missionary, by a gang of fanatics, and has promised that all the guilty persons involved in the crime will be punished.

Maniac's Shocking Crime.

Joliet, Ill., Jan. 9.—William Rapson, an aged farmer living near Joliet, killed his son and daughter-in-law and then committed suicide while temporarily insane through fear he would be sent to the county poorhouse. The maniac planned his crime deliberately after brooding for a long time over what he considered mistreatment at the hands of his children.

Made Wholesale Arrests.

Uskub, European Turkey, Jan. 9.—By order of Hilmi Pasha, the whole municipality of Uskub, together with the vicar, and clergy of the vicariate, were arrested, the accusation being that they had formed a revolutionary tribunal. A search of the homes of the accused was without result, but all efforts to secure their liberation have been unsuccessful.

Policeman Didn't See.

Washington, Ind., Jan. 9.—Burglars broke into four business houses all within one block and escaped without being detected by the policeman who was patrolling the street.

HON. HUGH T. MILLER
 [Who was today inaugurated as Lieutenant-Governor of Indiana.]

FIERCE WHISKY WAR

Independents Prepared to Meet the Action of the Trust.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 9.—Following a general order which was issued from the headquarters in New York city last night, all the distilleries under the management of the so-called trust quote goods this morning at $1.22 as a basis price for the finished product. This is the lowest price in many years and is a drop of one cent on the quotations which have been given out during the past few weeks. The cut in price by the trust houses means another stab at the independents, though it is expected they will meet the reduction and the rivalry for business which has resulted in much lower prices the last few months promises to end in the bitterest kind of a war between the organizations familiarly known as the trusts and the independents.

SEVERAL VESSELS FOUNDERED

Fierce Coast Storms Do Great Damage in England.

London, Jan. 9.—Stormy weather still continues on the British coasts and several shipping casualties are reported. The Glasgow steamer Stella Maria collided Saturday night seven miles off Holyhead with the Spanish vessel Oris, and both sank. The crews were saved in the boats after drifting all night. The Belfast schooner Dispatch collided with the Sunderland steamer Dinnington off Ramsgate Sunday morning. The Dispatch was towed into Ramsgate, but the Dinnington is believed to have sunk with her crew of ten men. Several other vessels were driven ashore at different points, their crews being rescued with great difficulty.

Peabody Will Contest It.

Denver, Col., Jan. 9.—It is Governor Peabody's present intention to contest the election of Governor-elect Adams. He has several days in which to file his notice of contest, and he may not do so until after the inauguration of Governor-elect Adams.

Enters on Life Imprisonment.

Michigan City, Ind., Jan. 9.—James Gillespie, convicted of the murder of his twin sister, Elizabeth Gillespie, and sentenced to life imprisonment, has entered upon his sentence at the penitentiary here.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Former Governor Lloyd Lowndes of Maryland died suddenly at Cumberland, Md., Sunday.

A natural glass explosion in a plate-glass factory at Alexandria badly burned eight workmen.

In France a feeling of nervousness about the internal situation in Russia is beginning to be observed.

A tidal flood on the east coast of England caused an enormous amount of damage at watering places.

The joint national livestock convention and the National Wool Growers' association is in session at Denver.

It is said that J. W. Lowther, M. P., will succeed Lord Milner as British commissioner to South Africa in April.

The transfer of prisoners at Port Arthur has been completed. The total number of officers transferred was 578; men, 23,421.

The house committee on military affairs has practically completed the army appropriation bill. It carries in round numbers $69,000,000.

Alva Adams was declared by the legislature to be the duly elected governor of Colorado. The returns showed Adams, 123,078; Peabody, 113,304. Plurality for Adams, 9,774.

Reports from interior West Virginia tell of furious snowstorms in the mountains, several points reporting the fall ranging from 20 to 30 inches.

A fire at the Atlantic Refining company, Philadelphia, destroyed three large paraffine agitators. The loss is estimated at more than $200,000.

Twenty-four persons lost their lives in the Alps mountains during the recent blizzard, fourteen of the casualties being on the St. Bernard pass.

President Roosevelt has issued an order on request of Governor Douglas of Massachusetts detailing Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, to duty with the national guard of Massachusetts. General Miles is to act as Governor Douglas' chief of staff.

MAY CUT 'EM OUT

Arizona and New Mexico May Be Eliminated From Statehood Bill.

THE ONLY REAL FIGHT

Against the Bill Now in the Senate
 Is the Uniting of These Two Inharmonious Territories.

By Leaving Them Out of It the Remainder of the Bill Would Have Clear Sailing.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The joint statehood bill will continue to be the principal topic of discussion in the senate during the present week, but other measures will receive attention each day during the morning hour, including the omnibus claims bill for which Senator Warren stands sponsor. The bill comprises more than 200 pages, but the senator already has succeeded in having it read by utilizing odd hours, and thus has put a large and important part of the work of consideration to the rear. There will be an effort made to get through the bill providing for the compensation of American fishermen whose vessels were seized previous to the arbitration of 1893. This measure is in the hands of Senator Fulton, who will press it as an act of justice to men who he thinks have been discriminated against.

The pure food bill will remain in the background for the present, not because the friends of that measure have abandoned it, but because they consider that its chances will be improved by not pressing for immediate consideration. They have been assured by the Republican leaders that the bill shall have first place on the calendar, aside from appropriation bills, after the statehood bill is disposed of, and therefore they will not antagonize the statehood bill for the present, if at all. The only real fight is against the uniting of Arizona and New Mexico, and there is talk of eliminating those territories entirely from the statehood proposition. It is believed if this were done the bill for consolidation of Oklahoma and Indian Territory would pass.

Bishop Spalding Is Better.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 9.—The condition of Bishop J. L. Spalding is reported as improved, and it is not thought that the paralytic stroke which he suffered Friday afternoon will prove serious. The patient has regained his speech and has partly recovered the use of his left arm.

Johnson Says

Dr. Behers
ACTIVE
PILLS

We do not know of a single pill on the market that is so thoroughly satisfactory. They neither Nauseate nor Grip, yet produce a natural movement of the bowels and stimulate the liver to a healthy action that makes a friend of every one that tries them.

F. B. JOHNSON & CO.
Drugs-Wall Paper

Jesse Winkler and family have moved from the Earl Mull place to their farm in Posey township, recently purchased from Ed. Morris.

Greensburg Review, Saturday: On Monday morning work at the stone pile recently established will begin. At present there are only three men that will be put to work, these being the three given a fifteen days' sentence by Mayor Thompson the earlier part of this week.

Connersville News: Satisfactory settlement was made today by Charles Vance and his friends with the Indianapolis commercial agency that caused his arrest. Their claims were settled in full, less proper credits, and their representative regretted that so much trouble and worry had resulted to Vance and his friends.

GOV. MORTON

The G. A. R. Has a Bill for a Monument in His Honor.

The State Department of the G. A. R. had had printed the act to provide for the erection of a monument to the memory of Oliver P. Morton, and appropriating the money needed. The act specifies that the proposed monument shall be erected "in a conspicuous place on the State House grounds," and that it shall be "an heroic statue of enduring material." A board of five commissioners, two of whom are to be G. A. R. members is also provided for. The actual amount of money demanded for the monument is not named in the bill.

FOR RURAL ROUTE PATRONS

Postoffice Department Has Made an Important Ruling.

Postmaster Hall, of Bucyrus, O., has a ruling from the government which will be of interest to every community where the rural free delivery system is in force. A Bucyrus, Ohio, carrier found in mailbox on his route two letters that were intended for the owner of the box and had been put there by some one in passing. The letters were confiscated and sent to the Government at Washington, with a request for a ruling. The Government approved the action of the carrier, and said that all mail found in any box without stamps or the proper of money for postage must be collected and taken to the postoffice from which the route is operated and held for postage. This ruling means that the owner of the mail box has absolutely no control over it.

THE SPECIAL TERM

Special Judge J. E. McCullough, of Indianapolis, convened the special term of the Rush circuit court at 9:30 this morning. Nothing of much importance was transacted. Judge McCullough called the docket and fixed Wednesday, January 11th, as the day to make up the issues. Court adjourned at 11 a. m. to meet Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

IN INDIANAPOLIS

The struggle's on, there's strife galore And signs denote a whole lot more, In Indianapolis.

The legislators are on hand To legislate to beat the band, A bold and brave, inrepid band, In Indianapolis.

They'll pass a lot of needed laws And fix up those that now have flaws, In Indianapolis;

The orators will fan the air With lanky arms and flowing hair, And masticate the rag for fair, In Indianapolis.

The lobbyist will flock about And worm themselves, now in, now out, In Indianapolis;

Hotels will reap a harvest great, Each one and advances now its rate, There's much much excitement on the slate, In Indianapolis.

IN ANOTHER BALL LEAGUE

The Rushville Team is Wanted to Join a Second Organization.

A Louisville Man Wants to Organize a Southern Indiana Circuit.

M. J. Russell, one of Louisville, Kentucky's prominent and enthusiastic base ball promoters, has a plan on foot to organize a Southern Indiana Base Ball League.

Rushville, by reason of its good reputation as a base ball town, is wanted in this organization, which, it is said, will be composed of Madison, North Vernon, Seymour, Columbus and Greensburg.

According to the Indianapolis Star, Mr. Russell is so sure of his organization that he has visited Madison for the purpose of choosing suitable grounds upon which to play. When the League is organized Mr. Russell wants to be president. As yet, the manager of the local club has received no communication whatever from Mr. Russell and states that Rushville will remain, if possible, in the Sunday League, of which it is now a member.
